What is Exchange?

Exchange is an all-volunteer national service organization for men and women who want to serve their communities, develop leadership skills, and enjoy new friendships. The first formal club was organized in 1911 by Charles A. Berkey, a Detroit wholesale jeweler. Four existing Exchange Clubs were incorporated into the National Exchange Club in 1917 in Toledo, Ohio. Today, Exchange is made up of some 800 clubs and 28,000 members throughout the United States and Puerto Rico.

The New England District Exchange Club was formed in 1966, and the Exchange Club of Greater Newburyport was re-founded by the Haverhill club in 1976 (an earlier club having been disbanded after WWII). The club meets twice a month for dinner meetings at the Starboard Galley. The Board of Directors meets once a month to conduct club business. The cost of Exchange, after an initial $20 initiation fee, is $35 a month, which includes the two dinner meals and both District and National dues.

The focus of Exchange is the prevention of child abuse, through both financial support and direct service. Exchange also provides other community services as local clubs see the need. In addition, Exchange celebrates the spirit and ideals of American citizenship.
